

This is a digital copy of a book that was preserved for generations on library shelves before it was carefully scanned by Google as part of a project to make the world's books discoverable online.

It has survived long enough for the copyright to expire and the book to enter the public domain. A public domain book is one that was never subject to copyright or whose legal copyright term has expired. Whether a book is in the public domain may vary country to country. Public domain books are our gateways to the past, representing a wealth of history, culture and knowledge that's often difficult to discover.

Marks, notations and other marginalia present in the original volume will appear in this file - a reminder of this book's long journey from the publisher to a library and finally to you.

Usage guidelines

Google is proud to partner with libraries to digitize public domain materials and make them widely accessible. Public domain books belong to the public and we are merely their custodians. Nevertheless, this work is expensive, so in order to keep providing this resource, we have taken steps to prevent abuse by commercial parties, including placing technical restrictions on automated querying.

We also ask that you:

- + Make non-commercial use of the files We designed Google Book Search for use by individuals, and we request that you use these files for personal, non-commercial purposes.
- + Refrain from automated querying Do not send automated queries of any sort to Google's system: If you are conducting research on machine translation, optical character recognition or other areas where access to a large amount of text is helpful, please contact us. We encourage the use of public domain materials for these purposes and may be able to help.
- + Maintain attribution The Google "watermark" you see on each file is essential for informing people about this project and helping them find additional materials through Google Book Search. Please do not remove it.
- + Keep it legal Whatever your use, remember that you are responsible for ensuring that what you are doing is legal. Do not assume that just because we believe a book is in the public domain for users in the United States, that the work is also in the public domain for users in other countries. Whether a book is still in copyright varies from country to country, and we can't offer guidance on whether any specific use of any specific book is allowed. Please do not assume that a book's appearance in Google Book Search means it can be used in any manner anywhere in the world. Copyright infringement liability can be quite severe.

This article was constructed in consequence of a suggestion from the American Institute, that a simple, portable, and low priced Furnace was much wanted by Farmers, for boiling or steaming food, preparing maple or beet root sugar, and for many mechanical purposes. It is so formed, that a space from one to two inches is left between the boiler and the casing that surrounds it, causing the heat in its passage to the pipe to encircle all parts of the boiler, even to its upper edge.

The American Institute awarded a Silver Medal at their late Fair. Also a Premium at the State and County Fair.

PREFACE.

IN presenting this edition of the BUFFALO CITY DIRECTORY to the public, I have no apology to make. I have been induced by the great absorbing principles of action and general stimulus which urges enterprise in anticipation of profit, and often leads the philosopher to follow the ignis fatuus until ruin and despair is inevitable.

As our citizens are continually changing their places of business and residence, and with a floating population of near 2000, who migrate hither by the natural and artificial avenues that make our City the great thoroughfare for the western States, whose rising hamlets, villages and cities, are continually calling from us the enterprising merchant, mechanic and artizan, whose place must be filled by others who can only be found by referring to a work of this description, which renders it not only useful to all, but a necessary companion to the business man, and an indispensable index to the rise and progress of our

"QUEEN CITY OF THE LAKES."

I have endeavored to give my patrons such a publication as they have anticipated, and at the same time it has been to me a source of gratification to have met with promptness and attention from those to whom I am indebted for the information requisite in the compilation. The gloom that has so long clouded our business horizon, will soon pass away. The madness of former times must give place to rectitude and honor of the intentions of a class in modus operandi of business far different from that, when golden dreams were naught but anticipation.

I have assiduously endeavored to refrain from wounding the keenest sensibilities of any one, in any thing that may, by error or omission, have escaped my notice. Should unfortunately such be the case, "'Tis not for petty pride or paltry popularity." I will not court the one, or do homage to the other. I have endeavored to do my duty faithfully, to make WALKER'S DIRECTORY what it purports to be, a true history of Buffalo, and shall continue to serve my patrons yearly, so long as I have a heart to dictate, a pen to write with, a reservoir of Bristol's Sarsaparilla to flee to in case of illness, and a generous public to reward my efforts.

THE AUTHOR.

MEDITATIONS.

"The 'go-ahead' of the brave and eccentric Crocket, has become the watchword of the age. In every department of civilized life—in literature, in science, in the mechanical arts, and in the labors of the field, all seem to listen with delight to this spirit-stirring talisman, and rush onward with redoubled energy to wealth and greatness.

"The march of mind is onward; our means of education are enlarging and extending their enlightening influence all over the land; new discoveries are daily adding to the rich legacy of former times; the power of Steam is applied to almost every purpose of public enterprise or private utility in which speed is to be obtained or labor performed. Steamboats, capable of contending with obstacles before insurmountable—railroads, which will soon enable the staid home-bred farmer to make the tour of the State in the same time which it would take him to traverse his own domain—cotton factories, iron foundries, mills, turners of spits, and diggers of potatoes, are hurried in their multifarious vocations as if endowed with life and intelligence. Each element—each distinct particle of the material world seems capable, by some strange combination with others, of almost assuming consciousness and vitality, when touched by the magic wand of intellect. Even the man of science is astonished at his own discoveries, and the artizan gazes in wonder upon the mindless materials which his ingenuity has put in motion. The tiller of the soil is proud of his vocation, and labors with a good heart, for he knows that peace and plenty smile upon him—free from domestic want and all external oppression, he sits down in the blissful fruition of his hopes, under his own vine and fig tree, and feels a security that there is none to make him afraid.

“The result of these improvements is a more rapid increase of the population and wealth of the country—the transmission of articles of commerce by means of the various modes of conveyance, by the railroads now in successful operation, the palaces on the lakes, and gondolas on the canals, not forgetting the services of that noble animal whose race has ever been a terror in war and a friend in peace, rendering at once a free interchange of thoughts, feelings and opinions between each distinct community within the continent; and within the compact thus keeping alive a consciousness of brotherhood which renders, and long may it render our country ‘one and inseparable.’

“Within the last fifty years, mighty changes have been wrought in the relative importance and geographical extent of these United States. New-England, once the nucleus around which gathered the hopes of our infant country—the centre of strength and power, to whose puritan arm the few and feeble branches of this great family of republics looked for protection. But the scene has changed. The western world has been explored, and the enterprise, integrity and wealth of New-England have contributed largely in rendering it one of the most opulent and powerful portions of the continent. New States have arisen, as if by magic; and every year adds thousands to the throngs who have left their father-land to rear their uprooted altars amidst the charms of the western wilderness, to gather the promised reward to an honest industry and enterprise.”

CITY OF BUFFALO.

THIS CITY is situated in the County of Erie, and State of New-York, in lat. $42^{\circ} 50'$ north, and longitude $79^{\circ} 22' 37''$ west from Greenwich, at the eastern extremity of Lake Erie, at its conflux with the Niagara River.

The land now occupied by the city, previous to 1801 was an Indian settlement of a few huts, and called by them Tehoseroron, being included in the purchase made by the Holland Land Company. In 1802, that Company sent on an agent and commenced a settlement. In 1812, it became the military depot for the army, then ordered to rendezvous for the protection of the frontier.

On the 30th December, 1813, the British and their allies, the Indians, crossed the Niagara River, at Black Rock, near where the ferry now is, and marched on to this place, and halted on what is now known by the corner of Main and Niagara streets. The late Stephen K. Grosvenor, and others, had a four pound cannon, and with a good supply of grape, mowed a clean swarth through the ranks of the enemy, until the piece became heated and dismounted, when they retreated. The troops had retreated sometime before. In one short hour the village was in a blaze, and all except two buildings, soon reduced to ashes. Part of the military stores were removed to the plains and saved. The enemy did not tarry long. Before daylight they had re-crossed the river, taking many of the inhabitants prisoners, whom they conveyed to Montreal, suffering from the want of clothing and other necessities of life. Nor were those much less fortunate who, by flight, escaped captivity. Their little all was gone; and the few that returned had not the means to re-build their houses—it was a calamity to be dreaded.

Shortly after, the American forces retaliated for the assault. July 3, 1814, the American army, under Gen. Brown, captured Fort Erie, in command of Major Bark; and on the 4th of July, 1814, the citizens that returned to Buffalo, had the proud satisfaction of seeing the stars and stripes floating upon the ramparts of the Fort on the western bank of the Niagara. The next day Gen. Brown drove the British regulars from the plains of Chippewa, at the terrific order of "charge!" On the 25th July, the enemy having mustered again in force, Gen. Brown gave them battle at the cataract, where Generals Brown and Scott were wounded, and the British Gen. Riall, taken prisoner. On the 7th August, messengers arrived, bringing intelligence that the British and Indians, 1500 strong, were on the march for Buffalo. Major Morgan, from Kentucky, who had just arrived with a detachment of 240 riflemen, marched to give them battle. When he arrived at Scajaquadie's Creek, he placed timber for a temporary breast-work, and destroyed the bridge. The friendly Indians and inhabitants marched on a different route. When the deadly fire of Morgan's rifles was heard, the volunteers and Indians on the enemy's flank set up such a horrid yell that Col. Tucker ordered an instant retreat to his boats. Many were cut off, and the dark blue waters of the Niagara closed over their remains forever. This was a proud day for Morgan; but, alas! honor is but an empty bubble. On the 12th, five days afterwards, poor Morgan was mortally wounded near Fort Erie. On the 15th the British again made an attack on Fort Erie, and were repulsed with the loss of 600 killed and taken prisoners. On the 17th Sept. the Americans made a sortie from the fort, and completely routed the British, by whom it was invested. Shortly after the British abandoned all their posts on the Niagara river except Fort George. The American troops destroyed Fort Erie, (its remains are now to be seen from this city,) and retired to winter quarters. Peace followed, and those who were driven from their homes, returned to enjoy once more contentment and happiness.

In October, 1807, Jesse Hawley, of Canandaigua, at the instance of Joseph Ellicott, surveyor and agent for the Holland Land Company, commenced a series of essays, which were published in the Ontario Messenger, proposing to tap Lake Erie and make a canal to the Hudson. Although the proposition was scoffed at by a vast majority, the inhabitants of Buffalo foresaw the immense advantages to the place resulting from its accomplishment, at once took fire from the then projected work, and bent their united energies to urge its undertaking. Few men of that day, who occupied high stations, could be found to second their efforts. The giant mind of DE WITT CLINTON soon foresaw the advantages to the country in its accomplishment; and by his exertions and perseverance alone, was the Grand Canal completed. But it cost him dearly. It is unnecessary here to point out the embarrassments under which he labored, and the persecutions, as the friend of the improvement, he met with. He succeeded in its accomplishment—and posterity has done him justice. No other man could have accomplished it. It now remains, and ever will, a proud monument to his memory.— Without the canal, this place would have remained a forest for years longer; and instead of our being the eighteenth city in the Union, with the son of the great benefactor as our Mayor, Buffalo would have remained a small, unimportant village; and the carrying trade of the lakes would have been conducted either through Ohio, Pennsylvania, or the Canadas.

1813. April 2. The Legislature incorporated the village of Buffalo, and appointed Eli Hart, Zenas W. Barker, Ebenezer Walden, Oliver Forward and Cyrenius Chapin, Trustees, from first January—the annual election to be held on the first Monday in May every year thereafter.

1815. April. The act was revised and new trustees appointed.

1816. April 5. The act was again revised, and new trustees appointed as before; under this act the village was much improved.

1822. April 17. All former acts of incorporation were repealed, and a new act passed.

1826. April 11. Act amended, and additional power given to the trustees, with certain water grants for wharves, piers, and other purposes, on the north side of Buffalo Creek.

1832. April 20. City of Buffalo incorporated. Every year from that time to the present, some amendment has been made to the charter, until it has finally become a compound mass, not to be understood by the fathers of the city, or the expounders of Blackstone.

Doct. EBENEZER JOHNSON, was the first Mayor of the city. He gave general satisfaction in the discharge of his duties, and may justly be called one of the fathers of the city.

From the annexed statement, it will be seen that the increase of transportation has been much more rapid than could have been reasonably anticipated.

TEMPERANCE SOCIETIES.

The formation of Temperance Societies, has done much for the public good in this city. This cause commenced here January 1, 1838. Among its members and projectors were H. B. Potter, Esq. and Dr. E. Johnson. Although the cause had many warm supporters, and continual droppings from the sanctuary were lavished in profusion, still drunkenness had the ascendancy; and out of a population of 16,158 souls, on the first of May, 1839, there was no less than 350 places in this city, where alcohol was sold to make the poor poorer, the moderate drinker a drunkard, and the drunkard a brute. The brave, generous and noble hearted youth were daily falling a prey to the destroyer; every day added a new victim upon the altar of shame and disgrace. The pulpit, the bench, the bar, the counting-house, the study, the store, the office—each furnished their quota, until the 18th February, 1841, two or three individuals, feeling the deep depravity in which the community then was, commenced the formation of the “Young Men’s Temperance Society.” The first meeting was got up with much difficulty—the rum sellers sending their runners to put down and bring ridicule upon the undertaking. But they did not succeed. The Society now numbers about 800 members.

Shortly after, in consequence of an invitation from a gentleman of this city, the Baltimore Pollard Society sent on a deputation, consisting of Messrs. POLLARD and WRIGHT, which led to the formation of the “Pollard Society,” and several others. Buffalo now furnishes several missionaries in this cause.

It will be impossible, before this sheet goes to press, to ascertain the number of tippling houses now in this city; but the writer will visit them all in his perambulations, and the result given in the close of the book. Among the Societies will be found the names of the officers.

THE YOUNG MEN'S ASSOCIATION,

Stands foremost in the ranks of Literature. Among its officers are some of the most enterprising business men among us. The Library is well selected, and contains many rare and choice works. Among them will be found Audobon's Ornithology—cost about $800; Cabinet of Minerals, Curiosities, &c. Annexed to the Library is a public Reading Room—free to strangers. During the past season many lectures have been delivered before the Association—some of them scientific, and all exceedingly interesting and instructive.

THE APPRENTICES' SOCIETY,

Under its present organization and condition, is sufficient to satisfy the most sceptical. Here is an institution without the fostering care of a benefactor, rising from very nothingness, by the aid of a few boys, almost—aye, even competing with the Young Men's Association—having a Library of some 600 volumes.—Their regular meetings, and their lectures and debates, have continued uninterrupted in harmony for nine years. Look to this ye fathers of the city. Help—ask not why they demand it—they are deserving, and should be encouraged.

THE ORPHAN ASYLUM;

Is an institution of a different class. Its objects are philanthropic. It was organised in 1835, and incorporated in 1837, for the purpose of maintaining orphan children. It now has about fifty children in charge. The building is situated on Niagara street, near Prospect Hill. This institution is entirely maintained by private contributions; it has no fund to draw upon for its sustenance. It did, indeed, for a time, maintain the children from the county Poor House, for the paltry pittance of seventy-two cents each per week; but they are now removed to the county house, on Delaware street, under the direction of Mrs. Healy. Although it is now in a prosperous condition, and was projected by a few benevolent ladies, among whom the late Hon. Mrs. Wilkeson took a very active and prominent part, still, as the institution is not maintained or supported by the public, the friends of private benevolence will here find a rich field to aid the orphan and destitute, who have no other friend and no other protection. Charity to this Society cannot be misapplied. The officers are of the first respectability, and their motives cannot be misconstrued. It demands from you, my reader, such encouragement as will make the heart glad to contemplate upon the performance of so noble an act.

There is also a City Dispensary, and several other charitable and benevolent Societies, which are omitted for want of space.

BOUNDARIES OF THE SEVERAL CITY WARDS.

There are 142 mails per week made up and sent off at this office ; and the same number received for distribution—making in all 284 mail bags to be locked, unlocked and despatched, without including many bags containing papers and periodicals, giving an average of over 40 mails daily.

The amount of postages collected for the year ending April 1, 1842, was - - - $25,388 32

Amount of postage on letters received at this office for distribution during the same time, - - - - - 139,840 15

Amount received for postage paid at this place in advance on letters mailed here during the same time, - - - 5,913 37

Amount of postage on unclaimed letters sent to the dead letter office at Washington, for the same time, - - - 1,017 46

From accurate calculation, it appears that the enormous number of 2,210,230 letters annually pass to and from this office.

Over 100 miles, - - - - - 6 "

N. B. By the law regulating the collection of postages, all newspapers and periodicals having any "memorandum in writing" on them, are subject to letter postage. The Postmaster General has instructed Doct. Haddock to charge letter postage on newspapers having the name on the same, of any other person, except the person to whom the paper is addressed. Should a person in Chicago, after receiving a newspaper from Springfield, with his name upon the margin, enclose the same in a wrapper, it would be charged as letter postage.—The law never contemplated to enforce letter postage in such a case, and the Postmaster General's construction of the word "memorandum," is a high handed stretch of arrogance and power. Most clearly any memorandum written on a newspaper with intention to avoid the payment of letter postage, should in all cases be charged, and the offender prosecuted to the full extent of the law (a fine of $5.) By the same law the wrapper is not considered any part of the paper, and any thing may be written on it, as it is the duty of the Postmaster to destroy it. This arrogant assumption of the Postmaster General has put our citizens to much trouble, and our Postmaster to unjust censure, as he is bound to obey the P. M. General, right or wrong.

The Post Office is removed to the new fire proof building, corner of Seneca and Washington streets, just completed by Wells & Hart, builders, under the immediate superintendence of Dr. C. C. Haddock ; which building was completed in two months from its projection, and will challenge comparison with any other Post Office in the country for safety, convenience, durability, economy and beauty.

BUFFALO APPRENTICES' SOCIETY.

FOUNDED 23D FEBRUARY, 1833.

The affairs of this Society are conducted entirely by apprentices, who, by their perseverance and industry have set an example which other Societies, long since prostrate, might have followed to their advantage.

They hold weekly meetings, at their Hall, No. 175 Main street, [4th story,] formerly occupied as a lecture room by the Young Men's Association—and as their object is, as their motto declares, "To get wisdom," it is hoped that every apprentice will give them his support.

They have a Library containing 800 volumes, and the Society is in a very flourishing condition. Initiation fee, 50 cents; regular fee, one dollar a year, payable monthly.

PREAMBLE.

Whereas, our national existence is based on the principles laid down in the Declaration of Independence, "that all mankind are created equal, and that they are endowed by their Creator with certain inalienable rights, among which are life, liberty and the pursuit of happiness;" and whereas, after the lapse of more than sixty years since the faith and honor of the American people were pledged to this, before Almighty God and the world, one-sixth part of the nation are held in bondage by their fellow-citizens; and whereas, slavery is contrary to the principles of natural justice, of our republican form of government, and of the Christian religion, and is greatly hindering the prosperity of the country, while it is endangering the peace, union and liberties of the states; and whereas, we believe no scheme of expatriation, either voluntary or by compulsion, can remove this great and increasing evil; and whereas, we believe that it is practicable, by appeals to the conscience, hearts and interests of the people, to awaken a public sentiment throughout the nation, that will be opposed to the continuance of slavery in any part of the republic, and by effecting the speedy abolition of slavery, prevent a general convulsion; and whereas, we believe that we owe it to the oppressed, and to our fellow-citizens who hold slaves, to posterity, and to God, to do all that is lawfully in our power to bring about the extinction of slavery, we do hereby agree—(with a prayerful reliance on that Being who “has made of one blood all nations of men to dwell on all the face of the earth,”)—to form ourselves into a society to be governed by the following

CONSTITUTION.

ARTICLE 1.—This Society shall be styled the “BUFFALO CITY ANTI-SLAVERY SOCIETY—Auxiliary to the New-York State Anti-Slavery Society.”

ART. 2.—The objects of this Society shall be to collect and diffuse information on the true character of slavery; to convince our countrymen of its heinous criminality in the sight of God; to show that the duty, safety and interest of all concerned, require its abandonment; and to take all moral, religious and other lawful means to effect a total and immediate abolition of slavery in the United States.

ART. 3.—This Society shall aim to elevate the character and condition of the people of color, by encouraging their intellectual, moral and religious improvement, by correcting the prejudices of public opinion, and by endeavoring to obtain for our colored fellow-citizens an equality with the whites of civil, religious and political privileges.

ART. 4.—This Society distinctly recognizes and cordially approves the plan of political organization in behalf of the slave; it believes that the time has come when the ballot box—that powerful engine in a republican government—should be brought to bear upon the mementous question of human liberty; and it confidently asserts that no consistent abolitionist can sanction or support any ticket which may emanate from any party that, either directly or indirectly, connives at the existence of slavery. In order the more speedily and effectually to abolish this tremendous evil, it shall be the duty of all the members of this Society to endeavor, by "speaking the truth in love," to convert their neighbors and the citizens generally, to the great principles of human rights, and such of them as vote, earnestly urged to give their suffrages and influence, at every election, in favor of the liberty ticket, unless they believe the candidate or candidates are wanting in ability, integrity or devotion to the cause.

ART. 5.—Any person who agrees with the principles of this Constitution, may, on signing the same, be a member of the Society, and shall be entitled to vote at its meetings.

ART. 6.—The officers of the Society shall be a President, three Vice Presidents, a Treasurer, a Corresponding and a Recording Secretary, a Librarian, and five Managers—all of whom shall constitute the Executive Committee of the Society, to whom shall be entrusted the disposition of the Society's funds, and the general management of its affairs. Five shall constitute a quorum.

ART. 7.—A meeting of the Society shall be held annually, on the last Monday in November, at which time an annual report shall be made by the Executive Committee, and the officers be elected, who are to serve one year. Other meetings of the Society shall be called whenever the Executive Committee shall authorize the same, or on written application of ten members of the Society.

NOTE.—The Preamble and Constitution of this Society is given to my readers that the document may be preserved, and the MOTIVES of the institution understood.

DOCTOR EUEN'S

UNIVERSAL

STRENGTHENING PLASTER.

Unrivalled and Unequalled!!!!

Celebrated for curing Pains or weakness in the Breast, Side, Back, or Limbs; also for Gout, Rheumatism, Liver Complaint and Dyspepsia. In Coughs, Colds, Asthmas, difficulty of breathing, oppression of the stomach, &c. they will give immediate and soothing relief; and for neatness, pleasantness, safety, ease and certainty, are decidedly superior to other remedies.—

Persons whose business or avocations require that they should sit or stand much, or those of sedentary habits generally, who may be troubled with pains in the side or breast, are advised to try one of these beautiful and unrivalled plasters. They are different from others, and free from objections which are generally made against plasters. Perhaps there is no medical observation better established than that of "CONSUMPTION originates in neglected COLDS." In a climate so variable as ours, it requires more care and attention to guard against the attacks of this too often fatal disease, than most persons are able and willing to bestow. It cannot therefore but be a gratification to the subscriber to be enabled to offer to all of consumptive habits, or those afflicted with distressing pains in the side or breast, or any affection of the breast or lungs, a reasonable prospect of relief by using his "Universal Strengthening Plaster."

In the course of more than twenty years professional practice, of the many who have used them he has not heard one solitary complaint; on the contrary so numerous are the cures they have effected, so abundant are the most positive and conclusive proofs of their efficacy he is daily receiving, so ardent, sincere and grateful is the language of those who have used them, that he is induced to offer them as decidedly superior to any thing of the kind, and unrivalled by any in the whole world!

The Ladies are respectfully informed that they are prepared with reference also to a number of delicate complaints, peculiar to the sex, that they are spread in a scientific manner, on the most beautiful soft and pliable lamb skin, will not soil or stain the whitest linen, and may be worn by the most delicate persons, in all situations, with ease and comfort, and without removal for one month, with pleasure.

Printed directions signed "WILLIAM EUEN," in my own hand. writing, will be placed upon the back of each plaster. Persons wishing to purchase will be particular to ask for "DOCTOR EUEN'S UNIVERSAL STRENGTHENING PLASTER," and see that they get the directions thus signed, without which none can possibly be genuine. They are put up in boxes of one or more dozen each, with large and attractive showbills; will keep without injury in any climate, and will be forwarded promptly as per order. Druggists, Dealers and Country Merchants, will find them a very saleable article at all times and in all places, and will find it an object to become purchasers.

"Hail gentle spring, ethereal mildness come,
And from the bosom of yon dropping cloud."

HE mild and lovely spring, with all its rosy charms, has come again. Vegetation bursts forth afresh, and the delicious fragrance of shrubs and flowers, blesses, with its holy presence, the abode of man.

The soft stirring air comes laden with the breath of the south, kissing the ringlets that cluster around fair maidens' cheeks—then flitting away on its errand of mercy to the chambers of sickness and sorrow.

Alas! that PAIN and ILLNESS should dwell on earth! But thus it is; and instead of repining at the dispensations of Providence, we should thank Heaven that, along with our ills, an antidote is sent. How many hundreds and thousands who have been brought to the very verge of the grave, bless the day when that "wonder of wonders" in the healing art— BRISTOL'S SARSAPARILLA —was placed within their reach, and they induced to test its healing virtues.

While all the more obstinate diseases, such as Scrofula, Cancer, and Syphilis, (which baffle the skill of our best physicians,) invariably yield to the potent effects of this—their master medicine—it is also of priceless worth in eradicating every lurking disease of the human system. How many are constantly dropping into the silent grave from a sheer neglect in purifying the channels of life, and banishing the presence of every symptom of disease! The countenance assumes a cadaverous, sickly hue; unpleasant blotches disfigure that face divine; the eye is languid, and has lost its heavenly, winning expression. But behold the change in those who have drank the life-giving nectar that dwells in "Bristol's Sarsaparilla!" The smooth noble forehead is again stamped with divinity; the eye beams intelligence, and sparkles with health. Sleep once more brings real refreshment; and as we rise and snuff the morning breezes, while the free and unobstructed blood bounds along its appointed channels, we feel that we are "born again."

Permit, gentle reader, another voice from the tomb ! to add his tribute in favor of that matchless remedy which alone, after a protracted illness of four long years of suffering and sorrow, enabled your humble servant to put forth this work as a public convenience, and restored him to health and usefulness.

HORATIO N. WALKER.

Buffalo, May 29, 1842.

HEREDITARY DISEASES.

Some of the most unpleasant, revolting and dangerous diseases to which the human race are liable, are known to be hereditary, and even to pass through many generations. It is often remarked that consumption seems to run through certain families, and that parents, children, and grand children, all successively die with it. Scrofula passes by descent from generation to generation. The syphilitic taint, which in the parent lies dormant, becomes often active in the child, on whom the sins of the father are thus visited. Insanity passes from sire to son, as a heritage—and many other complaints of the most serious and alarming nature, go down as dread heirlooms to posterity, embittering life and producing death.

Of these diseases and complaints, some are considered constitutional and pass by consanguinity, from parents to their offspring ; and others, in addition to their being heritable, are often derived from lactation. Syphilis, for instance, may descend to the child as the pen-ality of its parentage, or it may be derived from a nurse infected with the taint, though apparently in perfect health; and thus upon the innocent are visited the wrongs or the misfortunes of others.

What to a parent can be more dreadful, than the idea of handing down to a beloved child, as an inheritance beyond alienation, disease and death—disease lingering and loathsome, death early and inevitable? What to a child can be more saddening than a knowledge of the fact, that through the carelessness, or folly, or still worse, of a parent, his life is clogged with such a curse—that those who gave him being, have also given him an existence of pain and suffering, and a death of anguish and despair? What to a nurse could be more distressing, than a consciousness that the smiling cherub who draws support and nourishment from her breast, draws also from the same fountain, a poison that shall corrupt its constitution, destroy its health, and end its days?

Parents, have you thought of the awful consequences that may be entailed upon your children, and your children's children, by the corrupted currents of your blood flowing through their veins? Have you reflected that the life you give them, may be cursed by your infirmities? Have you considered that it were better that they had never been born, that they should obtain from you an inheritance of agony and wretchedness, and even death? Nurses, have you reflected that the innocent and beautiful beings nestling in your bosoms, and deriving from you their sustenance, may be also unconsciously imbibing from the fountains of nature, the poison tint of disease you now have, or may have had? Have you considered that it were better, far better, to deny them the support they need, and suffer them to perish in their infancy and purity, than to let them, with the milk they draw, suck the poison of a disease that shall make life a curse while it continues, and death a consequence of your fault when it comes?

If you have thought of this, then you must be anxious to know how the evil may be remedied, and the danger be averted. There is but one way in which this can be done. The disease must be cured; the tint must be removed. Every impurity must be cleared from the system. It must be purified and renovated. An apparent cure is not enough—the tint—the tendency to the complaint must be eradicated. It will not do to rely upon the disappearance of the disease. How often in cases of consumption, and more particularly of Scrofula, and Syphilis, has the patient congratulated himself upon a permanent cure, because every symptom of the complaint has disappeared, and found by a bitter experience, after months and even years had elapsed, that the tint was never eradicated—that the seeds of the disease remained in the system, where they festered on until the complaint burst out afresh, and with increased violence and malignity. In the ordinary business of life it will seldom do to trust to appearances—in complaints such as these of which we have been speaking, it would be worse than madness to do so. The patient should be certain not only that the disease was suppressed, but the tint entirely eradicated.

Upon married people, parents, and nurses, an awful responsibility rests to be certain that this is so, for not only may themselves suffer if it be not, but they may also entail upon their offspring and nurslings, all the horrors of a dreadful disease, and make it even a constitutional malady.

There is but one medicine now known that is safe and efficacious in removing entirely every trace of those hereditary diseases from the system, and that medicine is

BRISTOL'S SARSAPARILLA.

It may seem extravagant to say so, but the assertion is fully borne out by the most irrefragable proofs. Take the case of Syphilis. Have there not been numerous instances where medical art has been exhausted in vain to arrest the progress of the disease? All know that there have, that wealth has been lavished, and years been spent in seeking relief, and all in vain. Not a single case in which this preparation of Sarsaparilla has been used perseveringly, however advanced, has proved fatal—and in not a single instance where by its use a cure has been effected, has the disease ever returned. Why? Because its searching, and purifying, and renovating operation has pervaded and penetrated every portion of the system, eradicated every trace of the disease, and rooted out every germ of the complaint. Of Scrofula, the same may be asserted with perfect truth. Can this be said of any other medicine? No, not of one. Where the utmost art of the physicians have failed—where all other remedies have proved worse than vain, this, and this alone, has been successful.

Diseases which are deep seated in the system, require a remedy that shall reach them in their hiding places, and destroy them in their dens. Purgation will not do this, nor will any preparation that will not pervade the system and purify it. This Bristol's Extract of Sarsaparilla does, and will do, and in this consists the immense advantage it has over every other medical compound.

The numerous hereditary diseases—hereditary because they are so deep seated as to tint the very life currents, and be, as it were, almost engrafted into the system, and form part of the constitution itself—may be entirely cured, and every trace of the tint utterly eradicated from the system by the use of Bristol's Sarsaparilla; and in every case where such a disease exists, parents and nurses owe it to themselves, to their little ones, and to posterity, to guard against the consequences of the malady, or its tint.

Children of such parents should by a timely use of this medicine, avert the fearful destiny, that the inheritance of such a complaint must otherwise entail upon them.

EXPLANATIONS.

Throughout this Directory, the Christian names of those where there are more than one of the same surname, are alphabetically arranged. The firms are always placed at the last of those of the same name. When females are known to be widows, they are so designated, and placed immediately preceding the firms, in correct arrangement—and a scrupulously strict alphabetical arrangement (carefully conformable to the correct spelling of the name,) is observed throughout the work.

In searching for a name, the inquirer must know the proper spelling. For instance, if Baley is sought, not look for Bailey—for Schneider, not look for Snyder—for Schmidt, not look for Smith—and vice versa.

The words street, store, office, and the prepositions of, at, with, &c. are not expressed but understood. The place of business is placed first.

"Richard's himself again!"

The dreary Winter's past and gone,
Now comes the joyous Spring,
When every housewife, rich and poor,
Her dwelling ought to clean.

Soon as the frost has left the walls,
Vermin begin to lay their eggs;
Whitewash your rooms and stop the cracks,
Then bugs can never bite your legs.

Then now's the time to kill the bugs,
Shake your carpets, beat your rugs;
Whitewash kitchens, bed-rooms, halls,
And brush the spiders from your walls.

Rooms whitewashed, papered, colored nice,
R. HUDD will do it in a trice;
Patrons! you'll not think it STRANGE—
When the work is done, he wants the change!

HINSDALE'S
COMPOUND
CONFECTION OF ICELAND MOSS, OR COUGH CANDY.

This preparation has been in use several years, during which time the demand for it has increased very rapidly. It is undoubtedly the best medicine sold for Coughs, Colds, Hooping Cough, Pain in the Breast, &c. It is prepared of the Iceland Moss, ("Lichen Islandicus,") with several of the vegetable expectorals, and unlike most of the cough remedies, it is pleasant to the taste, and children may use it all times with perfect safety and success.

This Confection promotes a mild expectoration, soothes the cough and allays the tickling and irritation, which if not checked, so often leads to serious and fatal affections of the lungs.

Wherever this article has been introduced, it is used in preference to any other Cough Medicine, and the first physicians in the country use it in their practice. As a recommendation, it is only necessary to refer to the hundreds who are daily benefitted by it.

Prepared by

SAMUEL J. HINSDALE,

Chemist and Apothecary,

COTTAGE GARDEN.

The subscriber respectfully informs the public, that he has rented the splendid Mansion and Grounds of Dr. Johnson, on where it is now opened as a PLEASURE GARDEN.

This Garden, in beauty and extent, has probably no rival in the State. About four acres are beautifully laid out in parterres and walks, interspersed with arbors and rustic seats, and a collection of the most splendid native and exotic plants, adorn the whole. The efforts of a practical gardener have for the last seven years been devoted to this spot, and it has been brought to a high degree of cultivation.

Attached to the Garden is an extensive PARK, where shade walks and sylvan groves, agreeably interspersed with rustic couches, all invite the admiration of the visitor.

A CIRCULAR RAIL-ROAD,

of about one third of a mile in extent has here been erected for exercise and amusement.

The Cottage abounds in spacious and airy parlors, where refreshments of every kind (with the single exception of ardent spirits,) will be served up. Private parties can be accommodated with separate rooms if desired, and no pains will be spared on the part of the proprietor, to render this at once the most agreeable and fashionable summer resort in the state.

Every fine evening the garden will be brilliantly lighted up, and a band of music will be in attendance to enliven the scene.

Admittance to the garden 12½ cents. Season tickets giving free admission to the garden at all times, for a Gentleman and Lady, $2 50, to be had at the Garden.

☞ A few gentlemen with their wives, or single gentlemen, can be accommodated with Board, on moderate terms.
